KROGS REYGINA "Star"

CONSIGNED BY: Cole Ranch

FOALED: April 12, 2021 SEX: Mare

COLOR: Sorrel

AQHA : #6119316

"Star" is a well bred filly. If you like Krogman breeding, you'll want to buy Star. She has Lonestars, One Time Pepto, Grays Starlight, High Brow Cat, & Peptonita in her pedigree. Used for every job on the ranch, rides in the steep canyons and cedars. Shown in ARHA, State Fair, Slidin Daze, and Gettin Ranchy. Ropes, drags, tracks dummy, works flag, trustworthy, easy to catch, stands for the farrier, loads/hauls, eats and drinks away from home, stands in her stall. Our horses grow up in the pasture canyons not stalls. We raise and train them for what we need on the ranch, but we also take them to town on weekends and show them. She is kind and wants to please. Would make some kid a great 4-H horse, but needs someone knowledgeable to help the 4-Her to continue her training to make her a superhorse. Broad foundation to any specialization. Just the right age to continue on with her training. Has breeding to be an exceptional brood mare.

CHICA

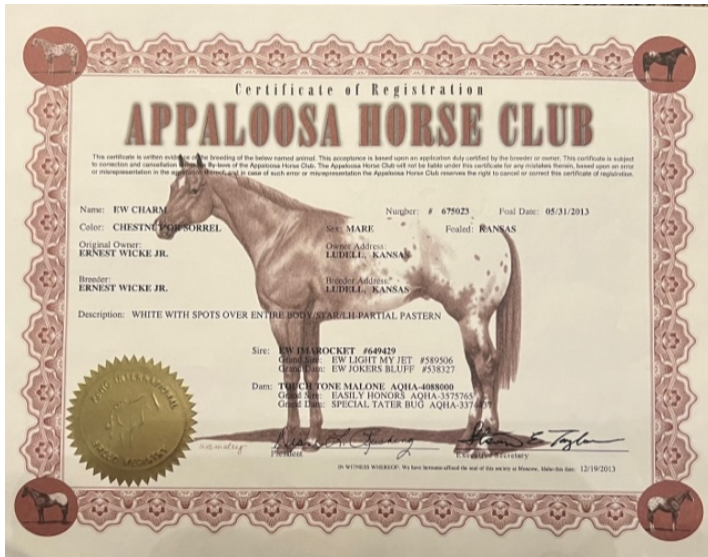

CONSIGNED BY: Danny Wicke Appaloosa's

FOALED: May 31, 2013

SEX: Mare

COLOR: Leopard Appaloosa

AHC: #675023

"Chica" 12 year old Appaloosa mare. This mare is well broke. She has run and worked cattle and is a well-rounded cow horse. Chica is sure footed and has gathered in pastures that 4 wheelers and ATV can't go. She is gentle and anybody can ride her. Chica is a full sister to Love Charm who placed second one year and third another year in the Iron Horse division of the Appaloosa World Show.

Cider

CONSIGNED BY: ZJ Quarter Horses and Training LLC

FOALED: 22 Years

SEX: Mare

COLOR: Palomino

AQHA:

She is HEALTHY and has been properly maintained her whole life I've had her since she was 2 years old. Cider is the true been there done that kid safe horse. Barrels, poles, ranch work, funday shows, western pleasure shows, field trials, trap shooting, mounted shooting, sorting competition, ranch roping, round ups, brandings, lesson mare, trails, water fun, the list goes on.

Cider requires front shoes for rocky terrain and that is her ONLY maintenance. She is UTD on shots, floating, coggins and worming. We have vet references; soundness check will be provided. My vet will tell you she doesn't look a day over 7 years old. She has been loved and properly maintained her entire life! I have 20 years of memories with this sweet girl. My kids have grown up with her and several kids in the community are going to be devastated to see her go.

Color testing and panel testing are completed. Started correctly in May and heading in the right direction to be a rock star ranch horse like both Dam and Sire. She has beauty and brains. Already pretty darn kid safe. She rides solo confidently. Her 9th ride she gathered 80 cow calf pairs on her own on a 200 acre pasture.

Gathering, tracking and sorting cattle. Started on roping, drags a pole. Extensive trail miles and assortment of experiences off ranch. Stands for farrier, loads in any kind of trailer and bathes. She catches you in pasture of any size. You say come on and she comes on running. She has an AMAZING MIND. Dog gentle no funny business what so ever. She's going to be a diamond to add to your ranch program and or breeding program. She stands 16 hh at 2.5 yrs old.

Ricky

CONSIGNED BY: Ashley Cressman

Foaled: 2012

Sex: Gelding

Color: Grey

Grade

Ricky is a 16HH, 2012 Grade paint gelding looking for a new pasture. Ricky is a sweet guy, loves attention but requires a confident, calm and patient person. Doesn't have a mean bone in his body but may have been treated unfairly at some point in his past is my best guess. He needs consistent work, or he can be spooky. He will take a few rides to trust you. Really sweet guy and solid mount for the right person. At this point, he is not suitable for a beginner. He's worked in the feedlot, and is a rockstar there, so he can get gates and push cows all day long. I have ridden him in the Rockies. He knows how to navigate a trail. He does well in a herd and can ride out by himself. Easy keeper, trailers well, stands for the farrier. He has pretty solid hooves, I only put shoes on him if he is going to be working hard. He has a melanoma on the inside of one of his back legs, it has been tested by a vet, and they said it is nothing to be worried about. He is a really sweet guy that just wants to do a good job for you!

RHONDA

CONSIGNED BY: Ashley Cressman

FOALED: 18 Years

SEX: Mare COLOR: Bay

AQHA: Grade

Rhonda is an 18 year old, around 15.2 hands, grade quarter horse mare. This mare is fantastic and put together well. She is my drinking horse that I can put my friends on is they come up to visit. I used her as a guide horse and guest horse in a dude string that I ran at Rocky Mountain National Park. She took all ages and experience levels, mostly in a halter or a snaffle bit. She is very forgiving, sure footed and can navigate her way through any trail. A friend had her for a year and roped off her, and she is really great for that. She is very level headed when you swing a rope off of her. She's worked in a feedlot, so she can open and close gates no problem, along with sorting cattle all day long. Before I bought her, she did have some reining training, so if you know the right buttons to push, she's pretty good at that still, but probably a tad out of practice. She's got a little scarring on one of her back legs, but it doesn't bother her at all. She is an easy keeper, and is great in a herd. The only reason she is leaving is my pasture is because I have too many horses, and her talent is being wasted. She ties, loads, trailers, and stands for the farrier. I generally leave her barefoot unless she is working. She can sit and is still the same horse when you decide to get back on.
